

Target Audience

Care and Support staff in a variety of settings and Housing Support Teams who are providing direct care and support.

This course has been developed to enable learners to build on their knowledge of what dementia is, causes of dementia, risk factors associated with dementia. This course will explore the impact of the behaviours and views of others on the person with dementia and how to ensure a person-centred approach is used for each person being supported

This course is delivered using a range of methods and resources including:

- ◆ Live tutor facilitation, scenarios for group work, questioning and participation, PCP tools and end of session assessment.

This course has been developed and mapped to current occupational standards, qualification frameworks and the following documents and resources:

- ◆ Dementia Core Skills: Education and Training Framework

Course Content

- ◆ An overview of:
 - The term 'dementia'
 - Common causes of dementia
 - Risk factors
- ◆ The impact of the views and behaviours of others
- ◆ Person centered tools for a person centered approach

Learning Outcomes

After attending this course, learners will be able to:

- ◆ State what dementia is
- ◆ List the common causes of Dementia
- ◆ List the risk factors of Dementia
- ◆ Describe the impact that the views and behaviours of others can have on a person with dementia
- ◆ List 3 person centered tools to use for a person centered approach

Duration: 3 Hours